

Designing HIV Preventative Interventions for Urban American Indians: Evolution of 'The Don't Forget Us' Program

This article describes the evolution and early implementation of the Don't Forget Us curriculum, a health education and disease prevention program for urban American Indians.