

The Kintock Group, Inc. -Employment Resource Center: A Two-Year Post-Release Evaluation Study

The Kintock Group's community-based postrelease program provides ex-offenders with case assessment, substance abuse treatment, life skills, and employment referral, placement, counseling, and support. Two-year tracking of 107 Kintock participants and 423 other parolees showed that 72% of the Kintock group and 65% of the others were not reincarcerated.
